Mandarin Oriental, Costa Navarino

Messinia, 5 February 2025: Costa Navarino, the sustainably driven destination in Messinia, southwest Peloponnese, begins its 2025 season with enhanced experiences across its resorts and a refreshed new look at The Westin Resort Costa Navarino. With more frequent flights from the UK to Kalamata International Airport, the destination is easier to get to than ever before.

Comprising four 5-star luxury hotels, private residences, four signature golf courses, sports, leisure, gastronomic and cultural experiences, all resorts at Costa Navarino will be open ahead of the Easter break, making it the perfect time to enjoy the mild temperatures and lush Messinian nature.

A Revamped Look for The Westin Resort Costa Navarino

The ultimate family and sports destination reopens on February 27, unveiling a renewed look with redesigned accommodation, revitalized popular spaces and a brand-new lap pool. All rooms and family suites showcase fresh interiors, complete with new furniture, fabrics, fittings, and lighting – blending Messinia's natural palette with a contemporary touch. This year, young guests can dive into endless fun at the revamped aqua park, while a vast array of watersports and outdoor adventures promises excitement for all ages.

The Romanos, a Luxury Collection Resort - a sophisticated hideaway

Designed as a pristine haven for adults and families seeking unparalleled service and authentic experiences, The Romanos, a Luxury Collection Resort welcomes guests as of April 9, featuring a unique selection of beachfront villas and suites ensuring complete privacy and curated exclusive benefits tailored to each guest. The resort introduces this year an enhanced programming with elevated gastronomy concepts, wellness retreats, pop-up events with renowned brands and a new adults-only pool.

W Costa Navarino, the vibrant adult-friendly escape

W Costa Navarino reopens on April 9, inviting friends, couples and families with young adults to dive into an exciting season. Starting with a bold twist on traditional Greek Easter celebrations, the energy carries on during summer, with electrifying beats. Culinary enthusiasts can look forward to the return of the “Chefs on Fire” series, whilst the “Ride the Wave” watersport sessions promise an adrenaline-fueled getaway. Wellness retreats are designed to inspire and energize, whereas the spacious 2-bedroom and 3-bedroom WOW villas will provide the perfect setting for friends getting together.

Culinary Journeys and Holistic Experiences at Mandarin Oriental, Costa Navarino

Mandarin Oriental, Costa Navarino reopens on April 10, inviting guests to experience a blend of Greek hospitality and the brand’s renowned Asian heritage. This season, the resort continues its exclusive “Stirring Stars” events, featuring globally acclaimed Michelin-starred guest chefs, alongside exceptional wine events led by prestigious Greek and International wine houses. Complementing these culinary offerings, the resort will also host a series of events “Masters in Motion”, where renowned experts provide holistic experiences designed to nurture both body and spirit.

A growing residential community and an expanded Villa Rentals Collection

The residential community of Costa Navarino Residences continues to grow and welcomes owners in unique freehold custom and turn-key villas that serve as gateways to unparalleled experiences. With only a few residences currently available, it is a unique opportunity to own property in this pristine Mediterranean destination.

For the 2025 season, Costa Navarino expands its Villa Rentals Collection with entries including for the first time, exclusive properties right at the beachfront. The collection features homes just steps from the beach or nestled among olive groves, allowing discerning travelers to immerse themselves in the Costa Navarino Residences homeowner lifestyle.

Navarino Agora

Navarino Agora, a hub of gastronomy, shopping, and cultural events showcasing both the region’s heritage and international artists, is opening on April 9. A rich programme of events will encompass music and dance performances, film festivals, fashion events and more. Navarino Agora is home to more than 20 retail stores featuring Greek and international brands, as well as restaurants, street food, an open-air cinema and entertainment venues.

Experience the World of Costa Navarino

Golf destination

Home to four signature golf courses and recognized as a world-class golf destination, Costa Navarino will host a series of prestigious events this year, including the renowned Legends Tour from 11-14 June.

Active young guests

The Westin Resort Costa Navarino hosts an expansive multi-sports camp for kids featuring 10 different sports -open to all destination guests- along with the NBA Basketball School, FC Bayern Football Camps, and new kids camps at the Mouratoglou Tennis Centre.

A timeless culinary approach spanning 4,000 years

Inspired by Greece's 4,000-year culinary heritage, Costa Navarino offers guests a selection of authentic Greek cuisine prepared with local olive oil and fresh, farm-sourced ingredients, alongside global flavours and innovative fine dining concepts. With over 40 dining venues, the food culture is central to the destination experience. The gastronomy offering is elevated further this season, through the collaboration with Michelin-starred restaurant CTC Urban Gastronomy and Chef Alexandros Tsiotinis. The new restaurant Paráfrasi by CTC, located between The Romanos, a Luxury Collection Resort and The Westin Resort Costa Navarino, will offer a distinctive fine comfort food experience, crafted with Messinian ingredients.

More Flights This Season

Costa Navarino is a 45 minute-drive from Kalamata International Airport. The Aegean-Olympic Air flights will connect Heraklion with Kalamata twice weekly from June, while flights from Athens to Kalamata open multiple international connections through the Star Alliance and Aegean Airlines network.

New flights to Kalamata International Airport from Europe include Discover Airlines from Frankfurt, Jet2 flights from Bristol, EasyJet flights from Manchester.
